

THE TIMES OF INDIA
MUMBAI, INDIA
8 NOVEMBER 1905
(page 7)

THE CALCUTTA AFFRAY.

No Clue to the European.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENTS.)

CALCUTTA, November 7.

One of the two budmashes who were shot by an unknown European on the night of the Dewali festival, under circumstances already reported, was discharged cured from the Mayo Native Hospital yesterday. The other wounded man is said to be progressing favourably in the Medical College Hospital. Although a reward of Rs. 100 has been offered, no clue has as yet been obtained as to the identity of the European.