

THE LONDON DAILY NEWS
London, England
28 June 1907
(page 4)

BOOKS AND BOOKSELLERS.

"The Star in the West," by Captain J. F. C. Fuller, is the title of a forthcoming essay upon the poetical and philosophical works of Aleister Crowley. A full account is given of his reconciliation of Theism and Atheism; Rationalism and Mysticism; Ethics, Buddhism, and the Qabalah; and such questions as the New Morality, the New Theology, the New Mysticism, etc. The Walter Scott Publishing Co. will issue Captain Fuller's work.