TAKEN FROM LIFE
J. D. Beresford & E. O. Hoppé
10/6 net

Mr. Beresford has collaborated with this famous photographer in presenting seven studies of humanity taken from life. All but one of these are taken from the lower strata of society, although some of them have achieved a relative success in their own world. The effect of this method of collaboration is one of almost startling actuality. The seven characters so admirably described and photographed can never be forgotten by the reader. The seven studies are: a Tramp; a Cabman; a Drug-fiend; a Pedlar; an Old Country-woman; a Courtesan; and a Charwoman.
