

THE SCHENECTADY GAZETTE
SCHENECTADY, NEW YORK
27 APRIL 1929

The Day's News in Pictures

"OUT!" SAYS FRANCE, and Sir Aleister Crowley, British baronet for 28 years a resident of France, must leave that country. Charged with having participated in German espionage in the United States, Sir Aleister has been ordered expelled from France because of his alleged "disordered life."