

THE STANDARD UNION
BROOKLYN, NEW YORK
27 APRIL 1929
(page 5)

DRIVEN OUT

Sir Aleister, a resident of France for the past twenty-six years, has been ordered to leave the country. During the war he was accused of spying in the United States for Germany. For years he has led an adventurous life.