

THE STAR-GAZETTE
ELMIRA, NEW YORK
2 MAY 1929
(page 26)

"OUT!" SAYS FRANCE.

"OUT!" SAYS FRANCE, and Sir Aleister Crowley, British baronet for 26 years a resident of France, must leave that country. Charged with having participated in German espionage in the United States, Sir Aleister has been ordered expelled from France because of his alleged "disordered life."