

THE SINGAPORE FREE PRESS
AND MERCANTILE ADVERTISER
SINGAPORE
28 FEBRUARY 1933
(page 9)

WAR CORRESPONDENT.

Mr. Gerald Yorke has left for Jehol by pony as Reuter's special correspondent. He is clad in a magnificent sheepskin as coat and sleeping bag—Reuter Far Eastern.

[Mr. Yorke, who was educated at Eton and Trinity, is the son of Mr. Vincent Wodehouse Yorke of Tewkesbury, a director of the Westminster Bank, Ltd.]