

THE BIRMINGHAM GAZETTE
BIRMINGHAM, ENGLAND
24 APRIL 1934
(page 9)

MR. CROWLEY TO APPEAL

An appeal is being lodged on behalf of Mr. Aleister Crowley against the verdict given for the defendant in a recent action for alleged libel, in which he complained that in her book, "Laughing Torso," Miss Nina Hamnett said he had had a temple at Cefalu (Sicily) at which he was supposed to have practised Black Magic.