

mystical disciplines of the world, since all, beneath a superficial diversity of terminology and approach, teach the same stages and inculcate the same training. For example, the analogy between the Western systems and Hindu Yoga is well known, but up to the present the parallel between them and the initiated Chinese tradition has remained an unsolved enigma. In the Book of Thoth, however, the relationship is firmly and convincingly established, thereby providing a further proof of the validity of both viewpoints.

This is only one of the many achievements of scholarship which mark out this work as a milestone in occult exegesis, but more valuable still is the completely fresh approach to the whole subject which permeates the book. This is no rehash of what has been said before on the subject, whether by Levi, Papus, de Guaita, Wirth, or that dull crowd of amateurs that dabble in the subject from time to time; it is a brilliant revaluation of the entire field of occult and mystical activity in the light of the most recent advances in science, philosophy, psychoanalysis and Comparative Religion.

The Book of Thoth is the first and final Classic of the Tarot. It is indispensable to all who seek to fathom the deepest wisdom of the ancients, and to follow the Initiated Tradition from the beginnings of History to the present day.

The Book has been nobly produced; no other consideration was allowed to weigh.

It consists of 290 pages with eight full-page colour illustrations, and ninety in black and white. The format is 10 × 7½ ins. Size of page and type as this prospectus.

It is printed on the finest mould-made paper, pre-war quality.

It is bound in genuine native-tanned and native-dyed Morocco from the Niger, with appropriately decorative sides.

The edition is strictly limited to 200 copies, each signed and numbered. The price is Ten Guineas. In U.S.A. $50.00.

Order through your bookdealer.

The set of 79 original paintings by Frieda Harris for sale by private treaty.