A CAREER FOR AN ESSAY

THE SOCIETY for the PROPAGATION of RELIGIOUS TRUTH offer a Prize of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for an Essay upon the WORKS of ALEISTER CROWLEY, under the following conditions:

1. The essay may be either hostile or appreciative.
2. In awarding the prize, the following essential points will be taken into consideration:
  - (a) Thoroughness of treatment.
  - (b) Breadth of treatment.
  - (c) Excellence of prose style.
  - (d) Originality.
  - (e) Scholarship.
3. As some of Mr. Crowley's works are rare or altogether out of print, it will not be necessary to deal with all of them, though to do so would naturally offer a better chance for the prize. The Works are being reprinted in a cheap form, and supplied to competitors at cost price. See the annexed form, which may be filled up if desired.
4. The rights of the prize essay are vested in the Society, which undertakes to publish the winning essay at its own expense, on terms of half-profits.
5. The competition is open to all the world. Competing essays must be written in English.
6. Essays may be sent in at any time up to August, 1905. The time may be extended if no suitable essay has been received up to that date.
7. Competitors will not be kept in suspense. Any essay sent in will be read at once, and returned within fifteen days if unsuitable. In case of any competitor requiring more time than allowed, it is open to him to forward part of his MS. to the Secretary, when if his work shows promise of success, he will be accorded any reasonable time in addition to that above stated.

8. In the event of any essay being kept beyond the fifteen days, it should be taken that its chances are considered worthy of more serious consideration: any essay so detained will in all events be awarded a small consolation prize.

9. The essay should extend to at least fifty pages of typed MS.

10. Only those essays that are typewritten will be considered.

11. The essays will be adjudicated upon by a member of the Society, and his decision will be final.

12. All essays should be sent by registered post: their receipt will be immediately acknowledged.

13. All essays should be forwarded without the name of the Author upon them, accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the name of the competitor, on the outside of which should be inscribed a motto selected by the competitor, and which motto should also appear upon the essay. These envelopes will not in any case be opened until the essays have been examined, and then only for the purpose of announcing the prizewinner, and communicating with him, or returning the rejected essays to their owners.

14. Should two essays appear of supreme and equal merit, the prize will be increased to one hundred and fifty pounds and divided between them.

15. Consolation prizes value under Ten Pounds, according to the merit of the MSS., may be awarded.

16. All communications should be addressed:

THE SECRETARY,
SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGATION OF RELIGIOUS TRUTH,
BOLESKINE, FOYERS, INVERNESS,

who will be glad to answer any questions, or to supply books to competitors for the necessary study in case they do not already possess them.

EVERYONE into whose hands this Pamphlet may come is sure to know somebody ambitious to make a name in Literature. Here is his opportunity. BEGINNERS with BRAINS have a better chance than professional critics who are perhaps palsied by prejudice.
