THE FOOL'S KNOT

O Fool! begetter of both I and Naught, resolve this Naught-y Knot!

O! Ay! this I and O—IO!—IAO! For I owe "I" aye to Nibbana's Oe.<sup>28</sup>

I Pay—Pé, the dissolution of the House of God—for Pé comes after O—after Ayin that triumphs over Aleph in Ain, that is O.<sup>29</sup>

OP-us, the Work! the OP-ening of THE EYE!<sup>30</sup>

Thou Naughty Boy, thou openest THE EYE OF HORUS to the Blind Eye that weeps!<sup>31</sup> The Upright One in thine Uprightness rejoiceth—Death to all Fishes!<sup>32</sup>
