To the Editor of the Occult Review

Dear Sir,—On the night of May 8, 1910, Bartzabel, the spirit of Mars, was evoked to visible appearance by a naval officer highly placed at the Admiralty, a well-known violinist, and myself.

The Spirit was asked whether there would be war in Europe, replied Yes; soon; within five years. Asked to name the countries, answered Turkey and Germany.

These being the countries responsible for the Balkan War and the present war, the prediction may be considered fulfilled in detail.

Yours faithfully,
FRATER PERDURABO.
