

The New EQUINOX Books

THE WHIRLPOOL

POEMS BY ETHEL ARCHER

A LITTLE book of exquisite lyrics by a new writer.

Miss Archer's poems are believed to contain more spiritual force than those of any woman writer since Sappho.

Ready immediately. One Shilling net.

THE HISTORY OF A SOUL

A HISTORY AND A ROMANCE

THE FIRST LONG WORK OF GEORGE RAFFALOVICH

One thousand copies only. Three-and-sixpence net.

THE DEUCE AND ALL

SHORT STORIES BY GEORGE RAFFALOVICH

CHIEFLY subtle psychological studies and mordant satires.
An entirely new departure in literature.

Three-and-sixpence net.

LONDON: THE EQUINOX, 124, VICTORIA STREET, S.W.

A GREEN GARLAND

BY VICTOR B. NEUBURG

A FEW copies of this book remain; the price has been raised to Half-a-crown net.

Of the very few cloth copies, less than ten remain for sale. The price of these is now Five Shillings net.

The book will not be reprinted.

LONDON: PROBSTHAIN & CO., 41, GREAT RUSSELL ST., W.C.