

THE ILLUSTRATED SPORTING NEWS
LONDON, ENGLAND
4 APRIL 1896
(page 32)

CHESS CHAT.

The Universities' match was played on Friday at the British Chess Club, which Oxford won, the score being 4 to 3. Messrs. Lawton, Spencer-Churchill, and Jenkins distinguished themselves on the side of the victors, and Mr. Quin valiantly upheld the cause of Cambridge. Full score:—

Oxford.	Won.	Cambridge.	Won.
E. Lawton	1	W.V. Naish	0
E.G. Spencer Churchill	1	G. Varley	0
H.G.W. Cooper	0	W.T. Quinn	1
H.N. Robbins	0	E.A. Crowley	1
R.A. Jenkins	1	R. Battersby	0
G. Fraser	½	H. F. Parker	½
A.S. Ward	½	C.C.W. Sumner	½
	<hr style="width: 50%; margin: 0 auto;"/> 4		<hr style="width: 50%; margin: 0 auto;"/> 3