

THE SCOTTISH MOUNTAINEERING
CLUB JOURNAL
EDINBURGH, MIDLOTHIAN, SCOTLAND
January 1899
(page 195)

EXCURSIONS.

THE S.M.C. ABROAD IN 1898.

Mr. E. Aleister Crowley was camping with friends above the snow-line during the whole month of July in very indifferent weather. The tents were pitched below the Dent Blanche, beside the Schonbühl Glacier, at a height of 11,500 feet.