

THE EVENING STANDARD
AND ST. JAMES'S GAZETTE
LONDON, ENGLAND.
9 MAY 1910
(page 5)

NEW BOOKS.

Poetry and Drama.

"Ambergris." By Aleister Crowley. Mathews. 3s. 6d. net.

(Mr. Crowley's poetry is uneven, but occasionally it reaches quite a high level—in "Autumn," for instance, and "Tête de femme," though, whatever his authority, we wish he would not rhyme "splendor" with "tender.")