

THE MORNING CALL
PATERSON, NEW JERSEY
23 MAY 1914
(page 6)

JUNE MAGAZINES.

The Smart Set for June is a magazine of infinite variety. There are stories of the upper ten and the submerged tenth; of Michigan Avenue bridge players and Alaskan prospectors; . . .

[. . .]

Robert Bridges, poet laureate of England, heads the list of poets with a short verse, "narcissus." Other verse is contributed by Louis Untermeyer, Charles Hanson Towne, Sara Teasdale, Mirian Crittenden Carmen, Victor B. Neuburg, Mahlon Leonard Fisher and Victor Starbuck. There are also the usual story in French and the dramatic and book reviews.