

THE BOX ELDER NEWS
BRIGHAM CITY, UTAH
29 JULY 1915
(page 2)

There is an Irish Republic. Make no mistake about that. This is not the venerable joke about America being ruled by the Sons of Erin. The fact is an expedition set out at dawn the other morning from Manhattan and glided down the Hudson to Bedloes Island. There, under the shadow of the Statue of Liberty, Aleister Crowley organized and proclaimed the provisional government of the Irish Republic. This done the party went back to a Broadway restaurant for breakfast.