

THE BUFFALO EVENING NEWS
BUFFALO, NEW YORK, U.S.A.
21 JULY 1923
(page 11)

The Literary Lobby.

Aleister Crowley, in the new New Pearson's, writes of "Ulysses" as if but a few in America knew of its existence. * * * Judging by the talk of Ulysses we have heard and the articles about it that we have seen we should rather venture the opinion that almost every one in America no knows that a man named James Joyce wrote a book called "Ulysses."