MR. CROWLEY.

In Court on Charge of Receiving.

Edward Alexander Crowley, aged 58, who was described on the charge sheet as an explorer, of Upper-Montagu-street, London, was charged at Marylebone Police Court to-day with feloniously receiving five letters, the property of Betty Sedgwick.

Mr. Ivan Snell was the magistrate.

Mr. Crowley, who was represented by Mr. Isidore Kerman, wore a light grey suit and a flowing bow tie. He carried a curiously carved walking stick.

A number of fashionably-dressed women had seats in the court.

Mr. Edward F. Iwi, prosecuting, said certain documents which were the subject matter of the charge, were at present in the custody of the Master of the Crown Office. Application would have to be made in the High-Court for the documents to be produced. He would therefore call the Sergeant who carried out the arrest, and ask for a remand for a week.

Mr. Kerman, on behalf of Mr. Crowley, said: "I would like to take this early opportunity of saying that Mr. Crowley has a complete answer to this charge, and I agree with the application for the remand for a week."

The Magistrate: There is another gentleman rather connected with this case?

Detective-sergeant Davidson: Yes. So far I have not been able to trace him, but I have hopes of doing so in the very near future.

Detective-sergeant Davidson then gave evidence of arresting Crowley about 2.40 p.m. on Thursday in Carlos-place, W.

Mr. Kerman: The arrangements for the execution of the warrant were made through my office, and there was no attempt to evade it.

Detective-sergeant Davidson: No.

The Magistrate ordered a remand until next Thursday. Bail was allowed in the sum of £10.
