

THE STAFFORDSHIRE SENTINEL
STOKE-ON-TRENT, STAFFORDSHIRE, ENGLAND
28 JUNE 1934
(page 1)

MR. CROWLEY FOR TRIAL.

Edward Alexander Crowley, aged 58, of Upper Montagu Street, London, W., who appeared on remand to-day at Marylebone Police Court charged with feloniously receiving five letters, the property of Betty Sedgwick, was committed for trial at the Old Bailey.

Crowley, who pleaded not guilty and reserved his defence, was allowed bail of £10.