

THE PEOPLE
LONDON, ENGLAND
15 JULY 1934
(page 9)

ALEISTER CROWLEY TRIAL

Among the accused for trial at the Old Bailey sessions opening on Tuesday is Aleister Crowley, the author.

He is charged with receiving four letters and one copy of a letter, the property of Betty Sedgwick, knowing them to have been stolen.

Altogether, there are fifty cases down for hearing.