

THE BARSTOW PRINTER REVIEW
BARSTOW, CALIFORNIA, U.S.A.
19 NOVEMBER 1942
(page 1)

Desert Man Writes
French Marching Song

"La Gauloise" official marching song of the Free French, was written by Roy Leffingwell of Barstow.

Words are by Aleister Crowley, famous English poet. Mr. Leffingwell composed the music. The song has been played over the British radio and broadcast to France. Thousands of copies are being dropped from airplanes over France.