

[on front of broadsheet]

"Alice, an Adultery" Appeals to the Aristocracy

A A A is clean and wholesome literature .....
A A A braces the intellect .....
A A A bucks up the moral tone .....
A A A is hot stuff .....
..... Hussars faint at A A A
..... Lancers simper at A A A
..... Cuirassiers curl up at A A A

---

"Alice an Adultery" Pleases the Plutocrat

Did you hear what happened to our First Edition
THIS!

Erudite Empresses, quiet Queens, parthenogenitic Princesses
Dainty Duchesses, maidenly Marchionesses, coy Countesses bashful
Baronesses, courtesy Ladies with cork legs—all the alliterative tribe
Of titled toads (totally tired) trotted to Tedbury to try to trade their
Trinkets and tripe for this tremendous torrent of tony touch-me-home.

But we were sold out

..... Beware .....
..... To share .....
..... Their fate .....
..... "Too late" .....

---

"Alice, an Adultery" Soothes the Smart Set

[on backt of broadsheet]

Boleskine House • Foyers • Inverness

---

THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROPA-
GATION OF RELIGIOUS TRUTH

Announce the publication of a cheap reprint on hand
Made paper of a new edition of
ALICE, AN ADULTERY

M. Marcel Schwob, the great French scholar,
Critic, and poet, writes:

"A little masterpiece"

Further eulogy is unnecessary, especially in view of the Remarkable success of the privately printed edition. In
The whole range of English literature there is no volume
Of quite the quality of this

Price Five Shillings net
Postage Threepence.

---

To the Hon. Sec. S.P.R.T.
Boleskine House, Foyers, Inverness.

Please send me by return of post. . . . . cop. . . . . of
"ALICE, AN ADULTERY", for which I enclose the sum of
. . . . . and . . . . . for postage.

Name .....

Address .....

.....

Date .....