

The Oath of a Philosopher.

I, _____ [motto], being of sound mind and body, and prepared on this _____ day of _____ [An _____ ☉ in _____ ° of _____] do hereby resolve:
in the Presence of _____ a Dominus Liminis of the A. . A. . : To prosecute the Great Work: which is, to obtain control of the attractions and repulsions of my own being.

Further, I promise to observe zeal in service to the Practici under me, and to deny myself utterly on their behalf.

May the A. . A. . crown the work, lend me of Its wisdom in the work, enable me to understand the work!

Reverence, duty, sympathy do I bring to the A. . A. . and right soon may I be admitted to the knowledge and conversation of the A. . A. . !
