

This copy is lent to the correspondent on the distinct understanding that he will return it within Two hours of its receipt, with a definite answer Yes or No as to whether he will proceed to take the obligation of a Probationer.

The robe of a Probationer should be obtained from Mr. W. Northam, 9, Henrietta Street, Covent Garden, London, who charges Five Pounds for it.

The cost of the Book is One Guinea, and must be paid at the time of reception to the Neophyte admitting.

The admission is not valid unless the Neophyte hand the robe to the Probationer with his own hand; or in the case of correspondence through the post—a method which is not to be employed without grave reason—write formally “I bestow the robe upon you.”
