

Unique opportunity. — Order early to avoid Armageddon!

Why Jesus Wept. by ALEISTER CROWLEY (who weeps too).

A study of Society and of the Grace of God. Limited edition at £ 1-1-0 uniform with the "Sword of Song," but in black throughout.

---

Mr Aleister Crowley solicits subscriptions for the above remarkable investigation (in dramatic form) into a critical point of the Religious History of the West. Apply to the Hon. Sec., S.P.R.T., Boleskine, Foyers, Inverness, N.B.

---

Are you a young and tender-hearted maiden? W. J. W. will delight you, and fill you with beautiful thought.

Are you a devout Mystic? In W. J. W. is the key to Beatitude.

Are you a hustling business man? W. J. W. will tone up your harried nervous system.

Are you a poet? W. J. W. will not cut your hair; but it will raise it.

Are you a dog-fancier? You will never beat the breed of bitches in W. J. W.

Are you a theologian? W. J. W. proves that Christ was no lachrymose hysterical hypochondriac, but a man with a genuine grievance.

Are you a Christian? W. J. W. tells how God's Grace can destroy the Works of the Devil.

W. J. W. touches Society with a needle; Religion with a pitchfork.

W. J. W. startles the Belle. W. J. W. annihilates the Quack.

Imposture cannot live in the breezy atmosphere of W. J. W.

Children love its dainty fooling; wise men pore over its profound revelations of the human heart.

The Milwaukee Christian Science Tomahawk says: "Now we know why."

The Catholic Press is unanimous in its favour. The Society Snippet says: "we recognise under the smiling mask of Angela the sinister and berouged features of Lady S. . . ."

God's Gore; with which is incorporated Ghostly Goings-on; a paper for Godly Gaffers, says: "The Blessed Blood again blots out Beelzebub's blasted blow-fly-blears."

I say: Buy! Buy Now! Quick! Quick!

My Unborn Child screams "Buy!"