

pose that any other nation about whom they sang

"They're hanging men and women too
For wearing of the green" would suppress the song by yet more hangings. The English are cynical enough to sing it themselves!

The English are ever on the look-out for atrocities. Bulgarian atrocities, Armenian atrocities, Tripolitan atrocities, Congo atrocities, and now German atrocities. One notices that the atrocity of the atrocitators varies with their political objectionability.

The parable of the mote and the beam was made for England, surely.

German atheism! from the compatriots of Shelley, Thomson, Bradlaugh, Morley, and John Burns.

German sensuality! from the fellow-citizens of Swinburne, Rossetti, Keats, and a dozen others.

German blasphemy! when the Kaiser invokes the God of Battles. As if the success of British arms were not prayed for daily in the churches, the name of God invoked in the addresses to the soldiers, and the very motto of England, Dieu et mon droit! It is true the Kaiser was first to make so emphatic an insistence that God was his ally; it seems that England has the old literary grievance against those qui ante nos nostra dixerunt!

German militarism! A strange rebuke from a nation whose saner citizens at this hour are cursing themselves that they did not have conscription twenty years ago, from a nation which has by a sham Insurance Act riveted heavier fetters on their slave-class than were ever ball and chain.

And it is England that can produce a firm of piano manufacturers to start a boycott of German pianos—their own pianos being all German but the cases!—and a boycott of German music. And it is England that can show a composer who writes to the papers that he will now "try harder than he ever tried before" to beat Bach and Beethoven and Brahms and Strauss and Wagner! In the meantime he will refrain from the wicked and unpatriotic luxury of Vienna steak! And since Kant thought two and two made four, for all true Englishmen they must make five in future.

Have Englishmen forgotten their own Royal family?

"The very dogs in England's court
They bark and howl in German."

Edward VII spoke English with an accent; and at the first hour of war with Germany we found the first Lord of the Admiralty a German Prince!

Until this year England has never been at war with Germany in the course of history since the Conquest. Our very speech, half German, betrayeth us.

All this is finished. The German is a Hun, and a Vandal, and a monster, and a woman torturer, and a child-murderer, and

Typewriter Touch by Actual Weight

Now mark the story this test tells. To operate the average typewriter requires a 10-ounce pressure on the keys. Some 7½, some 13½. Mark that the Oliver writes at 6½ ounces—scaled down to 50% lighter! And it wins its leadership in other points, too.

Here again a service to the world—the new model Oliver—the Silent Seven. A benefaction to all mankind. Labor of thousands lightened. With touch so sensitive that experts marvel—the weight of your finger, tapped on the key.

You Can Prove It

Place some small, flat object on a key of the average typewriter. Add enough objects to make the key write. Now perform this experiment with the Oliver No. 7, set at equal tension. Then weigh the two sets of objects. Your nearest druggist can do so if you have no handy means. Others have made this demonstration. The result is as interesting as it is conclusive.

Speed Test

Many are misled by the operator's performance. Oliver capacity exceeds all human pace. And before it leaves our factory we run each typewriter by mechanical tester—each key at a speed no human hand can reach. Yet, without once piling the letters.

Easy for the Novice

Now all who can touch a key can write at once. Start the first day your Silent Seven arrives. No schooling necessary—no skill. Just the normal practice that comes as you operate.

The Standard Visible Writer

The Silent Seven

This brilliant triumph has all our epoch-making inventions—visible writing, visible reading, fewest keys, and Printype if desired.

To these have been added the cushioned keyboard, anchor-keys and automatic improvements. With the new paper holder no care is needed—your sheet cannot crumple.

The return of the carriage advances your paper to another line—our famous automatic spacer. It prevents you writing on the line just written. Now the hardest thing to do with the Oliver is to make mistakes.

The OLIVER 7 Typewriter No. 7 17 Cents a Day

Our popular purchase plan applies to the new Silent Seven. And we give you by careful estimate 25% more value! Yet we have not increased the price one penny.
